“ I'll be seeing you in all the old familiar places That this heart of mine embraces all day through In that small caf?, the park across the way The children's carousel, the chestnut trees, the wishing well I'll be seeing you in every lovely summer's day In everything that's light and gay I'll always think of you that way I'll find you in the morning' sun And when the night is new I'll be looking at the moon But I'll be seeing you We love you Barb, rest in peace.

“ Of all my best memories the really great ones always included you. You weren't just my grandmother you were someone I could always talk to and always ask advice. I may not have always taken it but I always thought of the advice you gave before making my decisions. I will always love you and will make sure my brothers, my daughter, and anyone else knows how great you were and how blessed we were to have you...even if your time here seemed to not have lasted long enough...I didn't tell you goodbye because you never left my heart, you never will., and I know you're still here by my side when I need you. Forever, Brandi

“ My Sweet Grandmother, You were more than a grandmother to me . I will never forget the times we spent together, the conversations we had, and the things you taught me. The times I shared with you are of my most precious memories. Like, The first time I learned to dance. And the first time I saw you and grandpa dancing you two were truly amazing together! And the times we went to the doughnut shop they meant so much to me, All the fun we had playing cards, camping, laughing and just spending time together. They are memories I will keep forever in my heart. I will miss the conversations we had and sharing recipes with you. You always took the time to comfort me through the good times and the bad. You taught me so much from how to cook ,crochet, to being a mom and a wife. I will be forever grateful. I will truly miss you! I am so thankful to God for giving me the most loving grandmother I could have ever asked for. Love you Grandma! I will see you in heaven. Forever in our hearts, Isaac, Heather, Crystal, Jacob & Rachael

“ Over the years I have had so many memories about my Grandmother. Starting out as a toddler, she helped raise me while my mother was working. She even scolded me when I was bad. I remember visiting her and Grandpa when they went camping, even the trips to Michigan to see the Great-Grandparents. One of the most recent memories were watching she and Grandpa dance at my wedding in 2005. Finally, the opportunity to see Jeremy Jr. sit on his Great-Grandmother's lap for the last time. Unfortunately, deaths never come at a convenient time. They happen when our Lord calls our loved ones home. Though we regret that we can't attend our dear Grandmother's life tribute this Tuesday, we are grateful that she will be watching over us and keeping us safe while we travel and move overseas to Japan. You are forever in our hearts, thoughts, and prayers. Love Always Jeremy, Christi, & Jeremy Smith Jr. (please view the photos we left on this site)

“ Vicki: My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family during this agonizing time. It is never easy to lose a loved one but it more difficult to lose a parent who has always been there for you. Please let me know if there is anything I can do for you.
