“ Karen, I just read about your mom's passing in the paper today. So sorry to hear that and I wanted you to know that you're in my thoughts and prayers. You were such a loving daughter to your parents and she must have been so proud of you and also felt so fortunate that you were so caring and attentive. Take care.

“ Karen,

so sorry to read of your mom's passing. What a sweet lady she was as was your dad and you as well. Last time I had seen them was at the wedding of my younger brother where they assisted in the dinner afterwards.

My whole family have some great memories at our times at First Baptist Church will all the families that attended there.

Again my condolences.

“ Karen,

Our sincerest sympathies. Aunt Chris was a wonderful lady, just as Uncle Carl was a great gentleman. Now they are together once again. That is what our Lord had in mind. Time to be together once more. Please be strong through your grieving period and know that we are here for you at any time. With much Love,

Terry, Dianne, and Matthew
