“ Even though miles apart I still felt a closeness with Diane. Growing up our families did a lot together and I even got to be a babysitter for Diane, she was more like a little sister since she and my sister were about the same age. My deep condolences to Shawn, Jennifer & Stephanie and her brother David. I only wish I could have kept in better touch with Diane, she will be missed. God Bless.

“ Shawn so sorry for your loss, always thought of you as a friend. I have a slight health issue now myself so I can't stop and pay respects but could go for a walk and talk if you would like if that could help in anyway. Jim “ Words cannot express how much Diane will be missed by so many. As one of my oldest friends we shared so many adventures, vacations, sorrows and secrets, there will be a huge void in my life. I know that we will all miss the laughs, the kind words, and the smiles. Shawn, Jennifer & Chris, Stephanie & Patrick and Natalie please know we are so sorry for your loss. We hope you will find peace and comfort with family and friends at this time. Love Jean and Tom Wilcik
