“ Dearest Mom, "HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY"!! We miss spending this day with you, and all holidays. We miss our talks and visits, and your beautiful smile and laugh. It's hard to believe you've been reunited with Dad for over two yrs. now, and you've spent your birthdays and anniversaries together for the third time already! We often think of and talk about you both, as do many family members and friends. Neither of you'll EVER be forgotten!! Have a nice Mother's Day in heaven knowing you're missed here on earth, and are loved VERY MUCH! God couldn't have given us a better mom than you, and we've told you often how much we love you. Give our love to Dad and we pray you're both very happy. Much Love, Cindy and Kenny

“ Dearest Mom, It's two yrs. today that you passed, and the pain hasn't gotten any less. Things don't seem the same without you here to share in our lives, and to make more memories. You're definitely "one of a kind", and there'll never be anyone quite like you Mom. We think of you often, and speak of you often to the family, and to friends. You touched so many lives, and gave so much of yourself without realizing you had. Our lives will never be the same without you to make us smile/laugh. Thanks for all the memories we made as a family, and for also being a friend. You and Dad showed us all what it is to be great parents and grandparents. Hope we can come close to being as good as you two. Hope you're all watching over us love one's here, and can see how much our "little munchkin's" (grandchildren) have grown. We're blessed to have them, and to enjoy being Nana&Papa. To spoil them as you and Dad did with Little Gary&Brian(Boo). You both showed us how to be good at it as we enjoy making memories with them. We'll continue to miss you all, and to keep you alive in our hearts and thoughts. Heaven got more beautiful when you arrived, and we'll see you all when GOD calls each of us home to eternal life in heaven. We planted a garden and put some of your yard figurines in it. Hope you can see it, and you like it. You're one of GOD'S beautiful flowers now, and will forever show your beauty. We'll always cherish everything you and Dad gave us. We think of you when we wear something, or look at something you gave us. Your photos are displayed as they've been for yrs. and your clock's still on our mantle. The three ceramic owls on gold velvet like yours was, still is displayed in our hall. Have had these items over 40 yrs., and have enjoyed them, and will continue to. Thank You again for them, and for trusting us with the clock you got the first year of your marriage. Thank You for telling me after Dad passed, all the things he said about me. They all meant so much, and to know how much he loved me, helped me cope with his passing. I'll continue to cherish it all, and I'm so grateful you told me Mom. They're words and feelings nobody can ever take from me, that were Dad's. I'm so blessed you both love me and know how much I love you, and respect you both. Please give everyone our love, and we'll see you all someday, somewhere over the rainbow in heaven to share eternity.

“ Our Sons "Little" Gary and Brian and Family, Our love, prayers and these words of comfort are sent to you both and your families as we mourn Grandma Buschmann. You're in our thoughts and we pray your pain and tears will lessen with time. We love you both very much and wish we could take away your pain. Please know we're here for you and your family as we mourn this woman we love so dearly. Grandma spoke often of how proud she was of the men you became, and the good fathers you are. She always looked forward to your visits and enjoyed them and her great grandchildren. Think often of your times with her, for they'll comfort you and keep her with you. Grandma's in our daily thoughts and we're grateful we have these memories to keep her near. It gives us some comfort and we know she's not far away. We feel Grandma's still with us and not in Heaven. We know Our Lord called Grandma's name and Grandpa took her hand as they walked her to Heaven. They're watching over us all smiling and sending their love. Look up at the night sky and see the brightest star, for it's her shining down her love. May this too give you some comfort and ease some of your pain. This world was a better place with her in it and our lives much richer. They say what you do for yourself dies with you. What you do for others lives on. Your Grandma did so much for others that she'll live on forever as will all the things she's done. Always remember how much she loves you and your family. If you keep her in your heart and thoughts, she'll never be gone. We love her so much as does all those who've ever met her. We're so happy that you had her for a Grandma and that she loved you and still does, so very much. Remember we're here for you as is Dad. We Love You, Mom Mom and Dad Buschmann, You're forever in our hearts and always on our minds. We love you so much and miss you dearly. We're grateful for our times together and the many years we've shared. Family is one of God's greatest gifts and we've been blessed with a large family. We'll see yah both someday, somewhere over the rainbow. Till we are reunited in Heaven. My Endless Love, Cindy

“ Mom Buschmann, You're one of the sweetest people I've ever known. You've made me feel privileged to be a part of your family. I was honored when you said to call you Mom, not Mrs. Buschmann. I'll never forget your smiling face and your gentle touch. I'll remember with fondness when you let me be your dinner date when we all went out. Love, Kenny
