

Harold Edward Adkins Jr.

March 14, 1948 - August 24, 2018

Harold E. Adkins Jr., 70, also known as “Butch” and “Harry” to friends and family passed away on August 24, 2018 in The Toledo Hospital. He was born in Toledo to Tillie and Harold Adkins Sr. who preceded him.

Butch was a graduate of Northwood High School and attended Bowling Green State University. He was employed by Valley Farms Foods before moving to Tarrytown NY. where he worked as a bank maintenance supervisor. Before he retired, he was employed as a hotel night auditor for Marriot. Butch enjoyed buying and selling antiques, reading and writing.

He is survived by his siblings, Patricia (Jim) Mohn, Charlotte Adkins, Debra Adkins, Carol (Rick) Monroe; nieces and nephews, Carlotta (Bob) Larkin, William (Luci) Corradino, Harold (Colleen) Corradino, Christine (Vito) Ramirez, Thomas Frederick, Jack (Leslie) Mohn, Joel (Jasmine) Mohn, Burt Monroe, Molly Monroe as well as several great and great-great nieces and nephews, cousins Melvin (Annette) Wicks, Valerie Harris; lifelong friends Cheryl (Kevin) Ruddel and her daughter Zenith (David) Jakubowski, Floyd Simon and Barbara Robinson.

His family wishes to extend special thanks to all those for the excellent care that Harold received.

Friends are invited to visit in the Ansberg-West Funeral Home, 3000 W. Sylvania Ave. on Monday, September 17th from 6:00-7:00pm to celebrate Harold's life. Burial will be private in Ottawa Hills Memorial Park Cemetery. Those wishing to make memorial contributions are asked to consider any dialysis center in Northwest Ohio. To send his family online condolences, please visit <http://www.ansberg-west.com>.

Comments

“ Other than fond memories of Harold from school and our younger lives, I most remember running into him at antic malls. I used to stop to see him sometimes when I knew where he was selling "old stuff". So very sorry for your loss.

Bonnie Brandburg - September 09, 2018 at 11:11 PM