Irene was a “people person” and will always be remembered for greeting everyone with “Hi honey!” For 17 years, she worked for the iconic Red Hot Inn in Grand Rapids. Many people have fond memories of Irene taking orders, refilling coffee and stopping for table side chats. She engaged everyone with her beautiful smile and bright eyes and she was always ready with a joke! Irene also was an amazing cook and baker, always willing to share her recipes and to feed anyone who walked through her door. Irene was well known for making hundreds of Greek pastries for family weddings. Her love of cooking and generosity of spirit could be tasted in every bite. After retiring in 2001, Irene moved to Wheaton, Illinois to be near her children and grandchildren, and there wasn’t a day that went by without her seeing them. Family and extended family was of the utmost importance to her and she was truly the family matriarch.

“ YiaYia was a special friend to my mom at Cambrian. She was so sweet, funny and full of compliments whenever we visited. Rest in peace YiaYia.

“ Her smile and laugh, her loving spirit, and her sparkling eyes are what I always think of when I think of Thea Irene. What a terrible loss we are all grieving. So kind and welcoming and so interested always to know how we were doing. She raised two incredible daughters and it makes me smile to think how fortunate her 4 grandchildren were to grow up with Yiayia. With much love, Athena “ Great memories. She always knew how to make one smile. She never sugar coated anything except her Greek pastries and other sweets.

“ I wondered why I hadn't received any more phone calls from you. RIP my friend. I will always remember our years working at the MHSAA with you and the many Greek events you invited me to in Lansing. We celebrated our birthdays on the same day but I would tease you that I was a year younger.
