

Joe R. Quiroga

July 6, 1954 - December 18, 2020

Joe M. R. Quiroga, 66, died on Friday December 18th at St. Anne's Hospital. Joe was born in Santa Rosa, TX to Alonzo Quiroga and Herminia Lugo. Joe worked for Canberra Corporation for 30 years. Joe enjoyed playing golf with friends and spending time with family, his grandsons especially. You could find Joe telling stories and making the family laugh during family functions. You could always find him hovering around all the food tables and watching sports on tv. He was someone who you could call for anything and he would always be there to help and give his advice. He was a person that had a great impact on everyone he met.

Joe is survived by his two daughters Kelly Miller and Erica Downs, wife Gail Quiroga of 15 years and stepson Andrew Sarra. Along with his two grandsons Devlin Miller and Tristan Miller. Mother Herminia Lugo, siblings Pedro Quiroga, Mary Williamson, Celsa Silva, Loretta Kollman, Gloria Muriel, Linda Quiroga, and Olga Arnold. Service will be on January 8th at Ansberg-West Funeral Home. Immediate family members will have a private showing from 10am-11am, public from 11-1pm. After the Service there will be a procession to Whiteford Union Cemetery in Lambertville, MI.

“ There well always be a special part of my brother Joe in my heart cause there well never go bye that I won't stop thinking of you, I know I should have gone to Indiana when the whole family was together, but I'll always remember when I was little and we would watch cartoons like Bugs Bunny the roadrunner and all the other Looney Tune characters and watching him fancy up himself for a Friday night or Saturday lol my looked like Erik Estrada or John Travolta I'll always keep those memories deep in my heart love you always bro never forgotten but we'll be together one day
