“ Lana I was so sad to hear about your Mom. You have been through a lot and I hope that knowing your Moms suffering is over will help ease your pain. Having just lost my Mom a few years ago, I know what kind of void not having them in your life leaves, but all the great memories help fill that void for me. Know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Hi Lana, So sorry to hear about your mom. You have been through a lot. You know she is in a better place...it's so difficult to imagine your world without her. We both know. But you will and you will celebrate her life through yours. We will be keeping you in our thoughts and prayers. Take good care of yourself and your family. Keep yourself healthy....one day at a time.
