“ I met your father one time years ago when I was touring his preschool classroom. Even just having met him once, he has always stood out in my mind/heart. He was full of passion and fierce advocacy for students, and I was so taken by his love for kids and their wellness. I am truly sorry to hear of his passing. The world has lost his physical presence, but his goodness will live long in those children and families who were lucky enough to work with him.

“ Sad to hear about Lou's passing. I will always remember him as one of the first people to introduce me into the world of Autism while attending the University of Toledo as a graduate student. He was a fun and kind man. My condolences are with Lou's friends and family. -Ryan Knoblauch

“ Gillian and Alexis, We were so sorry to hear of your fathers passing. Over the years we enjoyed so many wonderful times with both of your parents as the two of you grew through school and activities. Your dad was always so kind and involved.
