“ We were so sad to learn Margo had passed away. She was such a wonderful neighbor. It was easy to understand why Tom was so in love with her. She will be sadly missed by all who were lucky to know her. Our prayers are with her devoted family and friends. Much love. Fred and Joan

“ It was a blessing to be able to call Margo my best friend forever. We were like two peas in a pod and often enjoyed the same things such as mystery books and shows. My husband and I attended several ballet performances with Margo and Tom over the years.

We both loved "The Nutcracker" ballet and felt it was a wonderful way to start off the Christmas holiday season.

Margo and I laughed and enjoyed ourselves immensely on our road trips. I would keep her laughing as I created funny scenarios as we drove passed the many road signs on our travels. I discovered she had an eclectic taste in music like myself and was surprised to discovery her love of country music as we sang along with the radio. We both loved touring Savannah, Georgia and enjoyed the history behind the city's many parks. She once accompanied me on a trip to North Carolina and we stayed with my widowed mother. Margo fell in love with my mom immediately. I laughed when she starting calling her mom and my mother was pleased to have another daughter because two was not enough. We shared a hearty laugh over my mother's "newly adopted daughter." Margo always sent love and well wishes to my mother whenever I would plan a visit back to my childhood home. She had a wonderful capacity to love others.

I will miss our shopping days, fun lunches and Downton Abbey marathons. Margo believed in the power of prayer and we often prayed together. She had a testimony of Jesus Christ and I know she felt his love in her life. She dearly loved her husband and family and enjoyed sharing her life stories with me. I will always cherish our friendship and will hold her memory in my heart like a precious gift. Goodbye my dear friend...until we meet again.

Love always,
Lola Marucci
