“ Essenia (Cindy), My thoughts and prayers are with you. May the Lord in his merciful goodness keep you close to his heart in your time of sorrow. May he soon grant you a peace-fill with hope in his promise of everlasting life. If we could only have Robert Sr. here for one day or more, it would be good. I am sorry to hear of your loss, You were a wonderful wife to him. You loved him with all your heart. I am sorry that you both had been under the weather, but you will mend soon. I say my prayers every night to the world that people before us, now and in the future will be safe and God was there for You to make you better and God was there to make sure that Bob would have something to do up in Heaven. Remember, God only takes the best. I like to write things to people I may not say them actually right, but I do my best. If you need support there are many places you can go too and maybe the funeral home has one, and also what you say in that room stays in that room. I myself have been going for almost 10 years. It is sad to hear what others have to say about their loved ones. I grant that Cindy as I know you, will be better soon. God Bless and Take Care. Thinking of you everyday.
