“ We were so sorry to hear about Terry. Barb first met Terry 48 years ago while vacationing in Hawaii and met Marge after they married. Even though we lived thousand of miles away, we kept in touch through the years. We send our condolences to Marge, Chris and Eileen.

“ Marge, I'm so sorry to hear of your husband's death. It sounded as if he had been ill for quite some time. He is at peace now and leaves you with many happy memories I'm sure. I loved reading about him being a teacher for so long and so many. He touched many lives. I'll keep him in my prayers...and you, too. Sincerely, Mary Ellen Coughlin Stevenson

“ Dear Marge and Family, Please accept my sincere condolences. Terry was one of the loveliest men I know. He will be missed by many people. I have the fondest memories of "High Holiday" meals at Joan's with your family there too. The funeral was beautiful, with John concelebrating and a lot of family involved. I'm sure Terry loved it. Love and hugs to all of you, Sharon

“ Mr. Leazer was a great teacher! Imagine a roomfull of teenage girls and trying to teach them! He never raised his soft-spoken voice and had a calm way of re-directing us back to the task. I had the great pleasure of crossing paths with him when he volunteered at St. Lukes. Every single student he had at McAuley will always remember him fondly.

“ Dear Marge, Chris and Eileen, I have known your dad and husband for many years. He was a very spiritual man. It was a joy to have him at our chapel for daily Mass. He was so kind when I would visit him. I feel I always received a great up beat. He cheered me up instead of me cheering him. You can be sure of my prayers and support at this difficult time.
