“ Midge was a good friend. We lunched together often and I always appreciated the banter between us. Her mind was so sharp and her wit so keen! She loved Bingo and one of the last times she ever played, she had a hot day. She had a good life and was ready to go when the time came. God bless her with peace and happiness now. She deserves it. And God bless her sister Ruthann. Agnes relied on her so much and she always came through. I miss you already, Midge!
