“ Dearest Larry & Debbie, Remember that God Loves you and so do we. Rest assure that your mother was welcomed into heaven by nice people (like my parents and brothers) for her graduation into the arms of our Dear Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We know all too well the pain you are feeling at this time. Know that you stand not alone in this time of sorrow and need, we are here for you both, night or day, you call if you only want to talk. Our hearts and open arms are here for you. Love your sister & brother in Christ, Debbie & Tom Gehr

“ It's been years since I've see all of you. My brother, Bud, just called me about your Mom's passing. Bud and I lost our Mom (Dee) on April 25, 2008. She was 76. Our Dad (Bernie) passed on November 13, 2006. He was 76. Your parents and our parents spent a couple New Year's Eve celebrations on-the-town during the 60's and early 70's. My thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of grief. May your memories bring you comfort.

“ I would like to express my condolences to the family. At times like this I have found encouragement in the bible at (Acts 24:15 and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.
