“ Ann was a beautiful person. I loved when she came to see me at the salon for her monthly haircut. She cared deeply for her children and family. Ann was a light and lived a beautiful life. Glad she is no longer suffering and can rest peacefully. My prayers for her children and grandchildren. She will be missed.

“ We are so sorry to hear about the passing of Ann. We got to know and enjoy her and her sister at the Coral Cay in Florida. Rather sitting at the pool, seeing her out walking, or conversing with her at the 5 o'clock Happy Hour at the CC, she and sis were always delightful to see and chat with.

Even though death is our common fate, we realize that the world is diminished when good and noble people leave it. out thoughts and prayers are with you. MM
