“ We just heard today of Artie's passing. I also can speak for our family that Artie was loved by all of us. Mom just got out of the hospital Thursday and has been laid up for a week or so. If we had known, we would have been there. You and Artie and our family were special to us. We will be praying for you and your family.

“ Roger, Lovie and the Heaps family, I was saddened to receive the news of the passing of Artie. He was truly a gentleman and a class act like few we find in today’s world. I always enjoyed his warmth, admired his openness and greatly respected his non-judgmental ways. I wish you strength in the days to come and know that with each of us who’s lives he touched we will carry a small piece of him with us for eternity. Terry Hanley

“ Words are not enough to express my sorrow at the loss of a truly great and loving man. He is the man who taught me more about being a man than my own father. God keep you Artie in the palm of His hand. And while you are up there, see in you can find that piece of cloisinnae. And don't argue about the price
