“ Mrs. T was the best. Brian and I used to drive her crazy by teasing Brenda. Timing house was always a fun place. Mrs. T made the best monkey bread, and OMG, it was awesome. I remember the first time meeting her as a kid. I asked her how old she was; she said 40-something, and I said, "You are ancient." She then chased me down Walker Street. RIP Mrs. T. I will miss visiting you when I come back home from Florida. I will especially miss making you laugh.

“ Bev was a wonderful person. She was the gatekeeper at Zollars when I met her, we quickly became colleagues and soon friends. We shared many great times and I will miss her great sense of humor and her laugh.
