

Biscay P Joseph

April 29, 2007

??? Joseph P. Biscay moved to a higher plane of existence Sunday April 29, 2007.? Born May 8, 1915 to Joseph Stanley and Anna May Biscay, he served as a flight mechanic in the Army Air Force during WW II.? Returning to Toledo, he worked at the National Supply Company until the moved their Toledo plant to Texas.? He then took employment with the Toledo Public Schools where he was employed first as a custodian,? he taught himself stationary engineering to earn a boiler operator's license, and finally moved up and eventually retired from the troubleshooting crew, working out of the Hawley Shop. ??? He was a Pack Leader for Cub Scouts Pack 13, Bethany Lutheran Church, and Assistant Scoutmaster and Troop Committeeman with Troop 44, Monroe Street United Methodist Church.? Joe and his wife Betty, who was the Building Superintendent at Monroe Street United Methodist Church, teamed up on countless projects, maintaining and improving the church, it's grounds, and it's properties.? After Betty's death, he continued to volunteer at the church for several years. ??? Joe was a constant reader and a perpetual learner.? Reading the works of Edgar Cayce led him to Eckankar, where he found a philosophy that he could embrace.? He became a minister in Eckankar, Conducting satsang classes and officiating? weddings, funerals and other services. ??? Father B. was preceded in death by his wife, Elizabeth May (Jones) and sister, Frances Kearns.? He is survived by sons, Michael (Karen), Robert (Cindy), and daughter, Jo Ann (Rick) Roberts.? The family will receive friends from 2:00 to 6:00pm Friday May 4, 2007 at the Ansberg-West Funeral Home 3000 Sylvania Avenue where a memorial service will commence at 6:00pm. Memorial contributions may be sent to Hospice of Northwest Ohio.