“ Where do I begin... We used to work together at Krogers we instantly became good friends. You was my prom date and you're Mom and Dad fixed us the best prom dinner! We found out we both lived on the same street "Gramercy". We would spend New Year's Eve together and you taught me to always buy green grapes for good luck in the New Year! The memories we shared will always be close to my heart even though we somehow drifted apart. Fly high Bryan ~ love always Cheryl.

“ I have so many memories of Bryan he always used to walk across the street to Brandon's house on Gramercy where I basically lived. Bryan you were always like a brother to me. I remember when we drove to see Brandon in Illinois and we talked about life, love and jammed TLC all the way there we probably listened to that CD a 100x times. Bryan always came to my campgrounds for my daughter's birthday parties. I will miss your kind compassionate heart you truly were an angel..Fly high to the sky. Love you always Nikki T....
