

Carol A. Wooten

October 24, 1943 - December 27, 2013

Carol A. Wooten, 70, passed away suddenly on December 27, 2013 due to complications resulting from a five year battle with metastatic breast cancer. Her courage during this time was inspirational to all who knew her and she was able to laugh and maintain her funny sense of humor throughout this entire period. Carol was born on October 24, 1943 in Anacortes Washington to Earle and Helen Richardson. She was a 1961 graduate of Hillsdale High School and a 1992 graduate of Monroe Community College achieving a degree in accounting. Carol will be remembered as a loving wife, mother, and grandmother who was devoted to her family and friends. She loved spending time with her family and grandchildren. She enjoyed camping, knitting, Bingo, cooking, and baking. No one was ever disappointed with any of her meals. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her. She is survived by her loving family, husband of 44 years, Patrick; children, Heidi Russell, Erik Wooten, and Kevin Kellogg; grandchildren, Adam Russell, John Wooten, Brittany (Jacob) McNees, Brandon Kellogg, Joshua Kellogg, and Jonah Kellogg; sisters, Jane (Tom) Foster and Kathleen (Tom) Mangold and numerous nieces and nephews. Carol was preceded in death by her parents, brother Robert Richardson, and grandson Jeffrey Russell. Friends are invited to visit on from 4:00-8:00pm on Friday January 3, 2014 in the Ansberg-West Funeral Home, 3000 Sylvania Ave. 419-472-7633, where funeral services will begin at 11:00am on Saturday. Those wishing to make memorial donations are asked to consider the Susan G. Komen Society for Breast Cancer Research. To
