“ Dear Family of Cic Myers: My family (husband John-deceased-sons Jeff and Steve) spent many summer vacations at the apartments at Clear Lake with Cic and Art. We enjoyed them so much. I have had a Christmas correspondence with Cic ever since although I have not seen her in many years. She was a fun, gracious lady and I'm sure she will be missed by many. My sincere sympathy, Eleanor Gibbs

“ So Sorry for the loss of your mother and grandmother. Knowing Lori since junior high, i got to know CIs and she was a very sweet lady. I will miss the Christmas cards we sent every year and remember how great her chocolate fudge and cookies were at Christmas time. God Bless You, CIs. Rest In Peace.

“ Hello Family of Cis, Your Mother, Grandmother and GiGi was the BEST. I know you will miss her but know she will always be where it is important for her to be and that is in your heart. Because of the person she was you are. Always remember the best parts of her. Her love for you and anyone of use who knew and loved her will always be a part of us. I will miss not getting a Christmas Card from her this year as we have exchanged cards since I moved out of Emmett and Jeans' home. My sympathies to you all.
