

Charles P Domansky

November 1, 2008

Chuck was welcomed into heaven on All Saints Day after a valiant battle that followed open-heart surgery in late July. Extreme complications developed, which he could not overcome. A graduate of the University of Toledo with a bachelor's degree in business administration, he also was a member of the Central Catholic High School class of 1954. Among his many enjoyments were his family, especially his six grandchildren, following and admiring their athletic prowess in their various sports. Chuck also spent many years coaching his two children in baseball and softball and enjoying the friendships he built with his coaching colleagues and other parents. Another love of Chuck's was travel with his loving wife of 47 years, Carole. Favorite trips included Nova Scotia, Maine and the Northeast; Washington, D.C. and Gettysburg, as well as numerous day-trips to Amish country, antique stores and craft sales across the beautiful country sides of Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania. Through Chuck's 38 years of employment with Libbey Glass, many lasting friendships were developed. He was a regular participant in monthly breakfast gatherings and bi-annual luncheons with fellow Libbey retirees. Chuck is survived by his wife Carole, son Edward C. Domansky of Tallahassee, Fla.; daughter Jean Hosinski and fianc? Jay Jenkins both of Sylvania, Ohio; and grandchildren Nicholas, Allison, Jason and Andrew Hosinski and Beck and Cole Domansky. Chuck is also survived by brother Edward J. Domansky of Toledo; brother-in-law John Molnar; and brother-in-law and sister-in-law James and Shelley Malcuit of Toledo. Chuck was predeceased by his parents Walter and Anna Domansky and beloved sister Irene Molnar (10-15-08). The family wishes to extend a special thank you to Dr. Michael Moront and his surgical team; the critical care doctors at Toledo Hospital: David Epperson, Peter Wilson, Robert May and Ashraf Banoub. A huge thanks also goes to each and every one of the nurses, therapists and support staff at Toledo Hospital -- the professionalism, love, kindness and gentleness you showed was appreciated more than you know. You all know who you are! Visitation will be Wednesday from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the Ansberg-West funeral home. A mass of Christian burial will be held Thursday at 10 a.m. at Christ the King Church. The family requests that contributions be made to Christ the King Church or the Sisters of St. Ursula. "There will never be another you"

Tribute Wall

D@

“ Chuck was a great man in his quite way. Very early in my career Chuck mentored me, helped me, was patient with me as I struggled to understand the business world. Chuck was their to help others focused on service. I will never forget Chuck and his smile and will always be indebted to him. No question he has left a hole on this earth and with his family yet we all know that he is still watching over us. God bless his family during these difficult days. Dick

Dick Reynolds - reynori @libbey.com reynori @libbey.com - February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM

SI

“ Carol, Ed. Jean , and grandchildren, Your dear father,husband and grandfather will be missed. He was a great loving person. I was honor to have him for my friend, We went on a few trips together and had lots of fun. He loved Notre Dame and so did I, We would always make bets on the points.I am sure he is up in heaven with our heavenly father. God Bless you all Sister Ann Marie Mc Manus

Sister Ann Marie Mc Manus - irishmcmamus@yhao.com irishmcmamus@yhao.com - February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM

GS

“ Carol - I just wanted to let you know that you are in our thoughts. Chuck was a one in a million and I have such fond memories of our time together at Libbey. He was always a consumate professional yet so tender at the same time. I can't imagine the hole his death leaves in your life. God bless you - gretchen

Gretchen Gotthart Skeldon - February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM

CW

“ A Libbey co-worker sent me the info on Chuck. I was so sorry to hear. Chuck was a terrific guy, took me under his wing and taught me how to ask for pricing. I've lived in New York and now North Carolina, so I never met any of his family. My prayers are with all of you. Carol

Carol (Galimberti) Wells - February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM

MW

“ I worked with Chuck for many years when he was in Libbey pricing. I was relatively new and he always helped me. We shared some great laughs (he had a wonderful laugh and smile). So sorry he was so sick at the end. My prayers and thoughts are with the family. Martha martha Williams - willimj@Libbey.com willimj@Libbey.com - February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM

TU

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to all the Family. Chuck was blessed with a very loving, caring family and I know that meant a lot to him. God bless you all and comfort you in your sorrow.

Toledo Hospital Dialysis Unit - February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM