“ Aunt Claire will be dearly missed. She was always ready for a game of euchre and a manhattan. I think I had my first legal drink with Aunt Claire in Wheeling, West Virginia! I will treasure all the fun times we had together. She was truly very special and she always made sure you knew you were loved a lot. She knew the true meaning of family. Our hearts goes out to Uncle Lee and the entire SannerO'Connor clan. She will always be in our hearts. God Bless and know that we all have another guardian angel on our shoulders. We will always treasure our memories of Claire. Love to you all, The Lakhani Family

“ We were so sorry to hear about Aunt Claire yesterday. She was a very strong individual who devoted her energy to her husband and family. We had many good times with Aunt Claire at family gatherings and her presence will be missed. We are even more regretful that we will not be in town for either the viewing or the funeral. Please pardon our absence. We tried to change flights and rental car and were not able to do so at such short notice. Our thoughts and prayers are with Uncle Lee and all the children and grandchildren. Dick and Cheryl

“ A tribute to Lee and Claire Sanner I am honored to have been born into such a loving and caring family with two of the most loving and caring parents on this earth. As I'm sitting here thinking back about all of the lives that they have touched in their lifetime with their acts of kindness and generosity it amazes me to realize that such small acts can have such big rewards If I can do by their example I will be worthy of the Sanner name.
