“ Barb, sorry to read about CLiff's passing especially at this time of the year. I know when my husband was dying 33 years ago, at Christmas time, I prayed that it would not happen, and it did not until January 16, . . My thought are with you and your family, I see that you have a great grand son,, that is good. take care, one day at a time/. Pat. P.S. I didn't get to go to the services because I was out of the country to attend a grandson wedding and didn't get back until 11.00 last night.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you, Barb, and all of the family. Cliff will be missed by all. We have many good memories of the "old days" on Tarrytowne, and we enjoyed our visits with him when he took his walks on the golf course. Sincerely, Gene and Pat
