“ We received the news of Colleen's untimely passing with sadness and surprise. When I (Jack) think of my aunt Colleen, I will always think back to those times, mostly summers when we were out of school, that we spent on Grandma and Grampa Baseflug's farm north of Richardton, ND. Those were some of the happiest and most memory-filled times of my life. We were both just kids back then - Colleen, even though she was my aunt, was only two years older than me. She was actually more of a friend and playmate as we were growing up together, rather than an aunt. There were also the times when we all met at the family reunions in Richardton, and I will always remember the trip to Chicago where my son John and I met John and Colleen for a weekend, rode the L train and took in a Cubs doubleheader at Wrigley Field. Colleen always struck me as an entirely down-to-earth common sense type of person, someone you could tell anything to and not worry about it, and someone with a big heart. Everyone nowadays likes to say "well they're in heaven now" about just about everyone who passes on - it's become sort of a standard saying, but in Colleen's case I really and truly believe that she is there face to face with God. She will be missed by all who knew her.....

“ When I heard the news of Colleen's passing I was deeply saddened. Although we were not recently in touch she was in my thoughts. Colleen was the type of person that was down-to-earth, gentle and always had a beautiful smile. She will surely be missed by all that were fortunate enough to have her touch their lives....
