

Cora F. Sweetman

August 11, 1934 - December 15, 2017

Cora F. Sweetman, age 83, went home to be with the Lord on December, 15, 2017, at the Ebeid Hospice Residence in Sylvania, Ohio. Cora was born to James and Ellen Sevier on August 11, 1934, in Corbin, Kentucky. She was a cheerleader at Lynn Camp High School in Corbin.

On Christmas Eve, 1955, Cora married Billy Jean Ridener. Cora and Billy were married until his death in 1976. Although they moved north to Toledo to work in the auto industry, Cora's heart was always in Kentucky. She and her family cherished many trips back home to see her friends and extended family. Visiting Cumberland Falls and class reunions were some of her favorites. You could always find Cora cheering on the Kentucky Wildcats. March Madness will never be the same, without her yelling "don't let 'em shoot".

Cora married Francis Sweetman in 1981. They enjoyed a long retirement and traveling together, including trips to the Holy Land, spending winters in Florida, and several bus trips with their church family.

Cora was a long time member of Calvary Bible Chapel, where she served in numerous ministries over the years. Cora could often be heard singing praises in the choir, helping with Vacation Bible School, meeting with the Ladies Prayer Group, and in many other ways. She always had a smile, hug and encouraging word for everyone she met; all loved her sass and sense of humor. She shared her home and her heart with many people in need.

Cora will be greatly missed by her children, Mike (Paula) Ridener, Paul (Amy)

Ridener, and Tracy (Matt) Smart; grandchildren, Dustin (Cara) Ridener, Erin (Tom) Goodreau, Derek (Jason Bogiel) Ridener, and Maggie (David Stranyak) Ridener; Will, Abby and Corbin Ridener; Jorey, Jaret and Taryn Smart; great-grandchildren, Sam and Patrick Ridener, and Easton and Ellie Goodreau; sisters Pat (Don) Stewart and Maxine Wells; and many extended family members and friends.

Cora is preceded in death by her parents, first husband Billy, second husband Frank, and brothers R.L., Hubert, and Ross.

The family would like to thank caregiver, Stephanie Redmond, for helping Mom be comfortable in her own home for the past several months.

Visitors will be received Wednesday, December 20 from 3:00p.m. to 8:00p.m. at Ansberg West Funeral Home, 3000 Sylvania Avenue, Toledo, Ohio, where a service will be held Thursday, December 21 at 11:00a.m. Cora's dear friends Pastor Andy Hill and Pastor Kelly Miller will officiate. Interment will be private. Condolences for Cora's family may be expressed online at www.ansberg-west.com

Cora loved her mountain heritage, children and reading. In lieu of flowers, friends are asked to consider making a contribution to the Dolly Parton Imagination Library, a charity based in Sevier County, Tennessee, dedicated to providing books to young children. <https://imaginationlibrary.com/>

“ To my friends family, words cannot begin to express the shock and sadness I feel at your mothers passing. I have many memories of Cora. Four years of high school, all the class reunions, meeting up at the Baymont for long chats in each other's room. The trip Marcella and I made to your home in Toledo. Fun times! The reunion will be great when we meet again!

“ Where to begin Cora, already miss you so much, we shared so much , no way to put it all down, I know you are happy in your heavenly home, but, its so lonely for us back here on earth. you will never be forgotten, you left your mark in this life well. I will see you on the other side, wait for me at Jesus feet.
Love you always

“ Momma how am I suppose to do this world without you? We were so much more than mother and daughter I think we were an extension of each other, are bond was not like anyone else's. I'm still numb and it's like a bad nightmare that you are really gone. I know you are where you really wanted to be, reunited with your parents and brothers and both of your amazing husbands but I wasn't ready the pain of living without you is unbearable. Please watch over us all and send me little signs now and then to help me cope!

I love you so much Momma
