“ To Doug, Melinda, Lee, Cameron, Dalton, and Morgan: In this time of mourning, be comforted by the fact that Dale is now with God. His passing was from one stage in life to another, an everlasting and peaceful existence that we will all eventually experience. It is difficult for those who he left behind, but someday we will all be together again. Know that in this life, even though there is some physical distance between us, our thoughts and prayers go out to you. Celebrate his life and remember him as the father and friend that he was.

“ Dear Lee and family. We are saddened to hear about the passing of Dale. We hope that in time your grief and sadness will change to acceptance and peace. The acceptance that Dales life was not from November 5th 1924- March 30th 2013. It was all the time he lived in between. And peace, knowing that he will live on in your hearts and thoughts forever. Giving you the greatest gift one could ever give.

“ To Dale's Family: May he be remembered as always ready to help any one in need in his USCG Auxiliary Family. He and Maxine were great mentors and providers of all thing needed to assist in sending the Boating Safety message to all. May the winds be always in your sails and safe journey.
