“ To the family. My thoughts are with you. Tex was one of those great men from our old neighborhood. Theyre just not making those kind of guys anymore (sadly). I'll always remember Tex and the rest of you while growing up on Elsie. What wonderful years those were - almost magical. It seems like a lifetime away now, but when I think back on those days, its always a special feeling. Please take care - all of you. Sincerely Dean.
