“ To the Brown Family, So sad to hear about Danny but I am so thankful that he and I built a special relationship years ago. I pray for your family and for Danny's wife and children. I know that you will all be stronger through this with the support of your friends and family. Soon and very soon no more pain...no more tears. Love, Barb

“ I was blessed to know Dan in many ways and was able to know his heart, which was good, and it was pure. I see Dan today in the place where we all seek beginning eternity with Jesus. And I also smile because I know he will be busy ...very busy...very, very busy! That was the Dan that I knew and will miss.
