“ To The Family of Darrell Hague: I'm sorry for your loss at this time. I know you are not aware of who I am, but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses, I wanted to reach out to the family with a message of comfort. We have something that is in common and that is the pangs of death, which touches the lives of us all. This is why I would like to give you a message of hope, comfort and peace for the whole family. God's word the Bible offers us that and gives us hope that a time in the near future death will be no more. I hope you will take your personal copy of the Bible and read Revelation Chapter 21, verses 3 and 4 for its comforting message. The words stated there can console the whole family in their grief at this time. Again, my sincere sympathy is extended to the whole family in the loss of your loved one. Ms. B. “ Dear Jo and Mike, I am so very sorry for your loss. Every time I think of you, Jo and Darrell, I remember when you babysat my boys and my Mike thought you guys were so rich because of your broken hockey sticks in your basement. I just loved the both of you. Take care of yourselves during this very difficult time. Love, Sue

“ To Darrell's family: I am Darrell's cousin. His father was my Uncle Gale. I am his Aunt Evelyn's daughter. I wanted to extend my sympathy to you, Josephine, and Mariana and to the rest of your family. I live in CA and my brother Gerry just sent the obituary to me. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this most difficult time. I hope these words bring you comfort. I can still see the picture of Mariana and Darrell sitting on the table at their Grandma Leroux's home from when we were all younger.
