“ Dear Cheryl and Marlene, sending my sincere condolences on the loss of your mom. She was always beautiful, cheerful, and welcoming whenever I saw her or was a guest in your home as a youth. Losing a mother is hard...lost mine, one of her pals, Jan 18, 2007, one of the toughest days of my life. Try to focus on the wonderful blessings she had in her life...two beautiful and bright daughters, grandchildren, a long and happy marriage, many years of good health. A life well lived! RIP, Delores.

“ We are saddened to hear of the passing of our cousin Delores and our thoughts are with the family. Cousin Delores was the daughter of our Uncle Mike, who was our Grandmother Genevieve Lipe's brother. In the last few years we reconnected with Delores and enjoyed going out to eat and sharing our family's history. She was a kind, gentle, generous and beautiful person. We will miss her. With Sympathy, Stacey Grasso and Shelley Luettkke
