“ To the Family. I am sorry for the lost of your family member and dear friend. I have an encouraging message that I would like to share with you from God’s Word the Bible. Like many people we all want to live and enjoy life with the ones we have lost to this aged-old-enemy death. Sadly, though because of health issues, injustice, crimes and old age we have to suffer the pain when ones fall asleep in death. In the Bible at John 5:28,29 Christ Jesus states that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out. These ones according to Psalm 37:11 will be resurrected right here on the earth. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope at Revelation 21:3-5 which assures us that the day is soon to come in which our Heavenly Father is going to wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more. I hope that after reading this that it will be of comfort to each of you. To learn more as to why we die and what hope for our loved ones, please feel free to go to the website: jw.org.

“ Sorry for your loss. I got to meet Dolores at the franciscan Care center where my Mom is a resident. I spoke to her every day and enjoyed the time we talked. Sometimes she would be confused but we still had a good visit. The staff there took great care of her until the end of her journey One in particular, Debbie. She was with your Mom Monday night holding her hand and comforting her as she always did. I went to say good bye that night hoping for her not to be in pain anymore. There are many others who took special care of her too. Rest assured she is at peace now and I know I will miss seeing her every day. God bless your family.
