“ Our deepest sympathy to the Shefferly family. Our memories of the baseball and basketball games at Regina Coeli are fond memories. Don was such a great supporter of the grade school events. Our good times after the games will be fondly remembered also. You were both such good supportive parents. He will be missed. Fondly, Bobbie and Family

“ Dearest Aunt Marilyn and family, Gene and I are so saddend by Uncle Don's death. I would always look forward to Christmas Eve and his arrival at the Shefferly Christmas celebration to get his wonderful hug and his "hi honey". Memories I will always treasure. Gene has such fond memories of talking baseball and sharing stories with Uncle Don. He became a close buddy of Gene's instantly and he is surely going to be missed and also remembered as we watch every baseball game. We are honored to have had him as our Uncle. His deep faith and love of all is an inspiration to us. We love you all so much and are so sad over his death. Love and Prayers, Gene and Mary Beth (Shefferly) Schmid
