

Doris Faye Crapes

November 14, 2015

CRAPES

Doris Faye (Obee)

Doris Faye (Obee) Crapes, 72, passed away at Riverside Methodist Hospital, on November 14, 2015, following an unexpected cardiac event. After high school, she attended Salvation Army College and became an officer in the Salvation Army. Doris was also a graduate of Asbury College, Asbury, Kentucky, with her Bachelor's Degree in Social Work. Doris worked for many years as a social worker at Salvation Army, Toledo, OH. She retired from the Salvation Army and moved to Nelsonville, OH in 2009, with her husband, Jeffrey.

Doris had many hobbies and loved to fish. Her favorite past times were attending church, spending time with her husband, Jeffrey and her family. She loved donating her time and efforts for friends and family. .

She leaves behind a loving husband, Jeffrey Crapes; her sister, Carol Grel; brother, John Obee, and sister-in-law, Susan Crapes. Doris was an adored aunt and great aunt to many nieces and nephews.

There will be no visitation or services. Donations may be made to the American Cancer Society. Ansberg-West Funeral Directors (419) 472-7633.