“ Sally and Sue. My cousin just let me know about your mom. I'm so sorry. I loved her dearly and made a point to see her whenever I made the trip back to Ohio. I will miss our cards at Christmas and birthdays. Such memories back to when I was little. There are so few that know me back then. I was always over there borrowing sugar when baking at grandmas in the summer :-). Collecting buckeyes from your tree and grandpa would drill holes in them for necklaces. She would walk me to church. All the hours grandma & I spent on the front steps visiting. She is truly a part of my life.
