

Doris G. Monroe

April 16, 2008

Doris G. Monroe, 88, a long time resident of Capistrano Ave. and most recently residing at Aspen Grove, passed away on April 16, 2008 in Flower Hospital. She was born in Manitou Beach MI. on December 30, 1919 to Ralph and Florence Patterson. For many years Doris loved gardening and tending to her flowers. She was a member of Mayfair Plymouth Congregational Church of Christ where she was active in the Partners in Christ Group. She is survived by her nieces Tammy (Mike) Ciha, and Mary (Doug) Elarton-Kulwicki and will be missed by numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. She was preceded by her husband Thomas, and 5 siblings. Friends are invited to visit from 2-4, 6-8PM Sunday April 20, 2008 in the Ansberg-West Funeral Home, 3000 Sylvania Ave. where funeral services will begin at 10:30AM on Monday. Interment will be in Toledo Memorial Park Cemetery. Those wishing to make memorial contributions are asked to consider Hospice of Northwest Ohio or the charity of the donor's choice.

Tribute Wall

CB

“ I'm so sorry I couldn't come to the calling hours on Sunday. I was in a minor car accident when I was on the road - don't worry, it was just a little bump on the head and I didn't need to go to the hospital - and I thought I should go home and rest. My thoughts are with you all. I am sure Doris is at peace now. Love, Catharine

Catharine Hadley - birdsputer@aol.com birdsputer@aol.com - February 01, 2018 at 12:00 AM