“ God rest Mrs. Csomos ... I was one of her students at Blessed Sacrament, and have very fond memories of her from that time and from many years after when I would be back in Toledo visiting and see her at Mass.

“ Mrs Csomos was one of my favorite teachers at Blessed Sacrament. When my brothers (who were blessed by her teaching as well) and I reminisce of our time at Blessed Sacrament, Mrs Csomos' name is always connected with kindness and gentle good humor. May God's peace that surpasses all understanding be with her family.

“ John, my sister Mary just called me to relay the news about the death of your mother. I know that it is hard on you and that you will miss her laughter and love. Remember that one is never gone when they remain in your heart. With deepest sympathy and love. Chickie

“ Your mom was my 4th grade teacher. More importantly, my mom, Jean Gorman, was a teaching friend of hers. I think they stayed in touch over all the years, even though the Blessed Sacrament days of teaching were long ago. We are so sorry for your loss. Jon and Barb Malhoit

“ Dear Csomos family, please accept my condolences. I just happened to read the obituary in The Blade today (I live in Los Angeles). I was a classmate of Lisa Stiles's at BSS. Ms. Csomos was an amazing teacher: kind, patient (but she didn't put up with any guff!). What will I remember most? Her smile. Prayers for her eternal rest and for your consolation.
