

Dorothy I. Daney

September 22, 2007

?? Dorothy I. Daney, 84, of Toledo, passed away peacefully at her home, under the care of Hospice of Northwest Ohio, on Saturday, September 22, 2007. She was born January 8, 1923, in Toledo, OH, to Stephen and Pearl (Robar) Morgenstern. Dorothy was a 1941 graduate of Central Catholic High School. She married Warren Daney, with whom she attended both grade school and high school. Their marriage lasted for 57 years, until his death in 2002. Dorothy was a devoted homemaker and a lifelong member of Blessed Sacrament Church. During her last years, Dorothy enjoyed daily rides with her family. Dorothy is survived by her sons, James (Kathryn) Daney and Michael Daney; grandsons, Kevin Daney and Scott Daney and numerous nieces and nephews. She was also preceded in death by her parents, brother, Richard Morgenstern and her sister, Florence Morgenstern. Friends are invited to visit from 3-8 p.m. Tuesday, in the Ansberg-West Funeral Home, 3000 Sylvania Avenue, (between Douglas and Secor Roads), where the Rosary will be recited at 7:30 p.m. Interment will be private. A memorial Mass will be celebrated at a later date. Memorial contributions may be made to Blessed Sacrament Church or Hospice of Northwest Ohio.

“ Dear Jim and family, Please accept my sincere condolences on your loss. I remember you talking about your mother and I know that you and your family gave her the best possible care and love that anyone could ask for. May you find peace in the knowledge of what an excellent son you were. Fondly, Rosemary Bramson
