

Douglas L. Zuelke

July 5, 1961 - October 17, 2012

Douglas Ludwig Zuelke lost his fight with cancer early Wednesday morning at home surrounded by loving family. He was preceded in death by mother, Patricia Fording, and sister, Rosemary Smolenski. Doug was an avid fan of Ohio State Buckeyes, Cleveland Indians and one of the biggest Guess Who fans as well. He devoted his life to finding the perfect blend of herbs to season his culinary delights. He was Chef of the Year for the MVCA in 2009. The world will be different without his quick mind and sharp wit to brighten our lives. He is survived by his children Jeremy (Susan), Bryton, and Alex Zuelke. Grandson Vincent Zuelke. Sister Cheryl (Allan) Miller. Aunts & Uncles Sue, Debbie, and Jim. Services will be 10:00 AM Saturday in the Ansberg-West Funeral Home, 3000 Sylvania Avenue where the family will receive friends from 5:00-8:00 PM Friday. Any tributes may be made in the form of contributions to the Ronald McDonald House.

“ I had only known Doug for a short time when I came to work for Trilogy but he was an enthusiastic chef with a great passion for food as well as people. The world is a little bit emptier without Doug. My sincerest condolences on your loss.

“ Dear Family of Doug, So sorry to hear of his passing. I used to work with your Dad at Chuck Muer's 30 years ago. I was also going to school to do hair and at a few after work parties I cut his hair, once even with dull broken red handled kitchen scissors. I will remember the crazy times on the "Cooks Line". I was glad to know he followed his Culinary passion. Bless you All.
