“ Dear Family, Sorry to read about Sally's passing. We knew her from First Freewill Baptist Church. She was my children's Sunday School Teacher and they thought the world of her. She was a true Christian who touch many lives. She now walks with the Lord.

“ Gramms, I loved ya from the first time I met you in the parking lot with Michelle, bringing parts to help Jamie fix his truck on the way to your family reunion! You made it known to me that you liked my son and I told you he really thought alot of you too. Your smile and kindness are something I will treasure. You looked so beautiful for the wedding and you never complained about the pain, just the look of total joy to be able to enjoy all the work that you, your granddaughter and your daughter and Jamie, put into the beautiful day. I was honored when you asked for my help at the shower, and being able to see you on "skype" to say "hello" to everyone there was priceless. I only knew you for a short time, but loved you as if I knew you all my life. We'll take good care of your Michelle, as you said, she truley is a special girl and she married a truley special man. Love you lots.
