“ Ed, you will truly be missed. We've been neighbors with you and Cheryl for 39 years and watched each other's children and grandchildren grow up. We've shared so many good times together from sitting around each other's picnic table and drinking and sharing stories on a hot summer day to the weekend we visited your campground and told jokes until 3 in the morning. We had such an enjoyable gambling trip with the two of you in the summer of 2017. It was one we'll always remember. We'll stay close to Cheryl and remain her friends forever. Rest in peace, our dear friend. Your pain is finally over. Sally & Bill Newhouse

It was always a pleasure to chat with Ed during a Model A event and to see what innovative improvement he had made to his car. Ed will be sincerely missed.

I never got to know Ed, but I am sure I would have enjoyed talking cars and hearing about road trips with Ed and Cheryl had I been in the neighborhood.
