

Eleanor D. McDole

May 27, 1922 - December 8, 2015

Eleanor McDole passed away on December 8, 2015, after a full 93 years of life.

She was the family matriarch; preceded in death by her husband, Bob McDole, and her sisters, Bea Atkins, Helen Katschke. and Gelen Meyers.

Eleanor was born in Toledo, Ohio on May 27, 1922, to James and Dora Hartman. She graduated from Whitmer High School in Toledo in 1939.

After marrying her high school sweetheart, she helped Bob with his businesses and focused on being a wife and mother, two professions at which she excelled. Her hobbies included golf, bowling, cards and traveling. In 1996 she moved to Fort Myers, FL to be closer to her family. She lived at Seven Lakes for ten years before moving to Barrington Terrace. She was loved by all who knew her.

In addition to her sons, Bill and David McDole, she leaves behind daughter-in-law, Nancy McDole, and granddaughter, Molly McDole. Ellie also leaves behind a devoted niece, Dorothy Harper and several great-nieces and nephews.
