

Ella Grace Scott

February 22, 1918 - March 1, 2015

Ella Grace Scott, 97, passed away on Monday March 2, 2015. She was born in McDonalton, Pennsylvania on February 22, 1918 to Joseph and Carrie Scott, sixth of seven children.

Ella Grace began her career as a bookkeeper at age 18, working for Forrester Grain Company. At age 64 she retired from Pete Marwick and Mitchell accounting firm. After retirement, she worked in the accounting office of Epworth United Methodist Church and volunteered at the Wildwood Metropark gift shop. She enjoyed playing bridge for over 50 years and no day was complete until the newspaper crossword puzzle was solved. Ella Grace was an avid bowler all of her adult life and an ardent Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers baseball fan. She frequently attended Mud Hens' games, and a highlight of her life was to throw out the first ball for a Mud Hens game at age 90.

She will be fondly remembered by numerous loving nieces, nephews and friends.

Per her request, services will be private. Arrangements have been entrusted to the Ansberg-West Funeral Directors, 419-472-7633. Those wishing to make memorial contributions are asked to consider Hospice of Northwest Ohio, 30000 River Rd, Perrysburg Ohio, 43551. www.hospicenwo.org. To send her

“ My heart and prayers are with the family of this wonderful lady. Ella Grace was one of a kind and will be missed by everyone that knew her. Deb. and I have missed her at some of the latest family gatherings that she couldn't make, because of health reasons and will miss her at the future ones. Rest in peace Ella Grace, you are in a better place now.
