Her Eyes Gone are the eyes that watched me grow The eyes that were able to see into my soul Together we climbed mountains and made it through the pain Only to find out that someday it would be forever changed As you've gotten weaker, I've gotten stronger Able to take care of myself even though I didn't want to You'd be proud of my wit, my confidence and my charm People say

I'm just like you and I know all about your charms
The eyes are in my heart, the eyes that saw my soul
But gone are the beautiful eyes, eyes that watched me grow.

“ Mata Family, I'am so very sorry to hear of Lodie's passing! She was a WONDERFUL friend to me for more than 50 years= also like a family member to all the Hall family and all our children as they grew up. I didn't know she was sick , I would have loved to talk to her . The last time I seen her was a few years back, she came to my brother Keith's services. How good it was to see her. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. She truely is an ANGEL in Heaven now.

“ Tia Tina, DeeDee, Lori and Family my sincere and deepest sympathy in the loss of a wonderful daughter, mother, sister. I have such great memories of Elodia and I growing up together. I will always remember her smile and the sound of her laughter. I see and hear that same smile and laughter in both of her daughters and it makes me feel close to their mom just being with them. I know she was so proud of both of them. There will always be an spot in the corner of my heart that will always be missing her. May she rest peacefully in God's loving arms. All my love to all the family; Your Cousin, Alma
