“ So sorry to hear od Ernie's passing. The last time I spoke with him at Wolf Creek; he was not happy. I am certain he is now. He was a kind man always willing to help. I truely missed him when he left the condo. I know how lonely he was.

“ Kathy and Jerry, It was with great sadness that we read in the paper that Uncle Ernie had died. We didn't see the obituary until Saturday afternoon. We're extremely sorry that we were unable to visit the mortuary or attend the funeral services, as a result. Remembering Uncle Ernie, the first thoughts that came into my mind were those of quietness, kindness and gentleness. The last time that we visited him at the condo, he was talking about helping some of his neighbors fix a plumbing problem. This was the person that will be remembered - someone always willing to lend a helping hand. Even his appearances on TV supporting Hospice showed his spirit of helping and kindness. I'll always fondly remember all those Saturday evenings at The Colony and Jugs when the entire family, including your mom and dad, gathered for those Mom and Pop bowling leagues. Sadly they're all now gone and are so dearly missed. Please accept our fond thoughts and sympathies. Uncle Ernie now is so dearly reunited with Aunt Virginia, his loving wife of so many years.
