“ Dear Odom family, My condolences in your loss. I fondly remember you Mother and father and going to Liberty church with them , as I was growing up and learning of Jesus our Saviour and Lord. At one time our families lived next door to each other on Campbell st. God will give you comfort in these times. Shirley Bean , daughter of Adell McGary Hurt and neice of Ava McGary Russell

“ Dear Family,
How blessed you were to have this dear sweet lady as your Mom, grandmother, and in-law. She was always thinking of ways to do something for others. She wasn't always meek and mild, especially if she knew she was right and you were wrong, She had some fire and gumption in her. We believe that your Mom and your Dad did more to build Liberty Baptist Church by their being friendly and inviting people to their home for dinner and being their friends, not to mention the many get-togethers hosting at your home or even later at the church. They were Godly people who were also fun-loving. What great rewards must have been bestowed upon them as they entered Heaven's gates. Esther was still just as spunky when we visited her just before her 100dth birthday as ever. God bless you all in this time of grief, but mostly joy that comes when you know she is in Heaven and she has left a wonderful legacy for you all. Wish we could be there! We love you!
