“ Your family has our deepest sympathy in the loss of your beloved, Evelyn. I only knew her through the stories I was told by her grandson, Greg. Greg will soon be our son-in-law and we are happy and proud to have such a fine young man to be part of our family. He always spoke with highest regards of his grandmother! I am sure she will be greatly missed.

“ To my Dearest Grandmother, I will forever cherish the memories....Church, Prayer, brushing your hair, birthday cakes, beautiful handwritten cards/letters, watching the birds from the backroom, roses, fresh mint, Easter egg hunts, Christmas celebrations, Nougat candy, cherry tomatoes, and most recently our many discussion of life planning and gut laughing over the funniest conversations "the apple doesn't fall far from the tree." Before leaving for Sydney, I asked you what your all time favorite memory was in your entire life and you quickly responded with "Ward". Your continuous love for Grandpa was as obvious as your addiction to chocolate... Your last words to me were "I will save the last dance for you"... while I would love to have the last dance, I think you were talking about Grandpa.... Dance away Grandma Logsdon... Dance away... xoxoxoxoxo Love Always and Forever, Julianna & Craig

“ Evelyn, so many great memories over the last 40 years since you came into my life. They say when you marry the daughter you marry the family. I have been blessed on both accounts. You have taught me so many things about caring for each other and tolerance for my fellow human beings. The Hail Mary has become my prayer of choice, thank you for that. Bye for now enjoy your new heavenly home, and Hi to all. May Mary hold you in her arms as you so well deserve. Love, Steve

“ Mom, your special time has finally come and your wishes are granted. May you rest in peace forever more and always be my guardian angel. Over the next few days your family and friends are celebrating your life and there is so much to share. Mostly, I will miss your physical presence and loving positive influence. You have shaped who I am and for that I'll be forever grateful. THANK YOU! Your legacy is one of a kind. I LOVE YOU MOM.

“ Youuuuu Whooooooo!!!! Mom was a lovely human being who influenced those lucky enough to be near her. She inspired me on how to live life, accept the challenges, love what comes my way and embrace my destiny. She loved all of her caregivers. Hospice was her lifeline to her next destination and I am grateful to have been her daughter and to help her pass. Mom always asked me. "When will it be my turn...I want to go home". Welcome home...I can see it now...Dancing in your celestial shoes enjoying collective knowledge...
