“ Peggylou & Alan and families, It's always difficult to lose Mom or Dad & I wanted you to know I am thinking about all of you. I have many memories of the Moses' family. It's been a long time & we've all grown a bit older. Times sure were different back then in the "Old West End". I pray God fills you with the good memories. An old friend, Marge Kuhman

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Frank Lee was a good man who could keep you laughing whenever you were around him. I have fond memories of he and my mother (Thelma Bess Johnson/ Salem, Va.) telling jokes and picking at each other. Last time I saw him at Eva Mae Bess's funeral he still had that twinkle in his eye. He'll be missed by me and my sister. (Cynthia Johnson Baldwin)
