“ There are no words to express how sorry we are to learn of Frank's passing. He truly was part of our family and he was chosen to be our youngest daughter's Godfather.

He spent many times with us sharing dinner, playing with our kids, who always knew him as their Uncle Frank, working on projects with us and being a very good friend to Zach and myself.

We were thinking about him on his birthday, March 1, and bringing to mind how many decades we have known and loved each other.

Frank was one of the most decent men we have ever known. He truly was kind, generous, trustworthy and so very thoughtful of others.

We know he is in the loving hands of our Lord now and enjoying every blessing God promises. He is loved by so many and will be missed forever.

“It’s hard to even begin to say what Uncle Frank meant to me and the Frogameni family. Let’s start with the fact that I called him “Uncle Frank”. Even though he wasn’t blood, he felt like family. He was always with us at the house. Every Christmas Eve from the time I can remember until my dad died, he played Santa Claus at our annual Christmas Eve party. I’m pretty sure he was my dad’s best friend since they were always together -- even more so in dad’s later years when he was really sick and Uncle Frank kept him company on a lot of days.

Dad died when I was 15, but, when I turned 16, I got a summer job with the City of Toledo in the Parks & Rec department. For 3 summers, Uncle Frank and I worked together every day out of Jermain Park. We drove a van all over the city taking care of the tennis courts and soccer fields. He was in his late 50’s/early 60’s then and I felt pretty cool riding shotgun with him and absorbing life lessons I couldn’t get anywhere else. He was an important anchor for me after I lost my dad.

Through Uncle Frank, my family was lucky to know many in the Pinciotti family. He was really proud of his family. I’ll most remember his infectious smile and how he lit up a room. He was one of those people who can fit in anywhere and everyone loved him. I loved him, too. I’ll miss him and my family will miss him. --Bill Frogameni

“ On August 29, 2012 I had the sincere honor and privilege to serve as Frank's guardian for the Honor Flight of Northwest Ohio. Almost a decade later it is a day that I will never forget. The memories live on of recognizing Frank's military contributions to our country and our freedom. Beyond Frank's service, he was an exceptional man with an infectious smile and a tremendous energy. My wife and I are thankful to have met Frank as well as him introducing us to Rita. He was generous in sharing his talents and a couple of his paintings remain proudly displayed in our home. I am thankful to have crossed paths in life with him and share in some great memories together.
