“ Dear Gary’s Family and Friends, I am very saddened to hear of Gary’s death and you all have my sincerest sympathy. Gary and I grew-up together as neighbors so I spent a lot of time with him. I always liked Gary very much and I always looked up to him. Gary would always make us laugh although I’m sure Julie and Nancy weren’t always laughing when Gary would tackle them in the front yard and make them smell his armpits. When we were young Gary built a work-out room in his parent’s garage and we spent countless hours out there. Gary was the person who taught me how to box and how to speed-bag and I thought that was just the coolest thing in the whole world. Gary was also my first employer. Being the entrepreneur that he was he bought some equipment and started installing seamless gutters. Gary would hire me during the summers and during those summers I learned valuable life-lessons about work, responsibility, and using a level. I have nothing but fond memories of all those years we spent together even though I had to listen to Johnny Cash in the truck the whole time. Gary was a great friend and a great employer and the world is a lesser place without him. I wish you all comfort as you work-through this terrible loss. Bill Rucki Aurora, OH

“ Our sincere condolences to our dear friends Julie and Jim and their family, and to the entire Heiss family. Gary will be remembered for his kindness, sincere words, his great sense of humor, and his infectious smile (a great guy to be around). No matter the time in between seeing Gary, we would pick up right where we left off and he always made us feel as if we were important to him. Gary was truly blessed with a caring heart and the gift of making others laugh and smile, and we will remember him with fondness. You all are in our thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time.
